Research Interests

I had worked on an antimonytrioxide extraction by hydrometallurgy in 1991 for my first degree in mineral engineering (Tiyapan). Then I did a speed control of DC motor for a first degree in control systems in 1993 (Tiyapan). I also wrote a computer program in C for another first degree, which was in computer science in 1992 (Tiyapan). In 1995 for a masters degree in control system I worked on self-tuning extremum control (Tiyapan). My M.Sc. dissertation was done on percolation and Voronoi tessellation (1995), which I carried on further to my Ph.D. (2004)(Tiyapan). Between 1995 and 1999 I was doing a control systems research in Japan (Tiyapan). This research is still on-going. I was doing singular perturbation then, but now I plan to do control systems studies for space exploration. A part of these I try to complete in return for a research grant already received from Japan. I had lectured for an electrical engineering department, where I taught electromagnetics and physics, and also for a department of mathematics where I taught business mathematics and coding theory. I had also taught C programming and Unix once at an international secondary school.
My research topics cover the areas mentioned above, and also some others. I am interested in the observation and exploration of space, telescopes both optical and radio, renewable energy. My language research is largely on isometry of scripts, that is to say, how one could replace other writing systems with the Roman alphabet. I had finished my Isometric Dali (Thai) in 2003 (Tiyapan). Isometric Lanna followed in 2011 (Tyabandha). I had digitised some manuscripts in Lanna. I am compiling my own digital libraries, which I give to the public once completed.

Experience

Cultural exchange student to New Zealand (1983, Kittisak Tiyapun, or Nui Johnstone) lived and studied Sixth Form through the American Field Service programme

Engineer trainee, John Dallimore and Partners, walton-on-Thames, England (March - July 1989, Kittisak Tiyapan) designed lightings and electrical distribution to renovate a five-storeyed office building near London

Engineer trainee, Ganzinform, Budapest (March - July 1990)
as a trainee through the Association Internationale des Etudiants en Sciences Economiques et Commerciales, AIESEC experimented with control instrumentation, solved geometrical problems

Business development engineer, Loxley, Bangkok (2 September 1991 - 1 March 1993) managed bids for residential and governmental turnkey projects sales engineer, Unelec circuit breakers project engineer, waste-water treatment plants of Bangkok Metropolitan Authority

Computer security manager, Telecom Asia, Bangkok (10 May 1993 - 1 May 1994) implemented security systems on mainframe computers ACF-2 on Amdahl's trained also on CA-Examine and CA-Operator, JCL (Job Control Language) and MVS (Multiple Virtual Storage)

Communication Engineer, Jasmine, Bangkok (3 May - 18 September 1994)
planned and installed a Direct Digital Networks, DDN

Ph.D. candidate, Tokyo Institute of Technology (October 1995 - June 1999) supported by the Ministry of Education, Science, Sports and Culture of Japan researched in Control Systems

Postgraduate student, University of Paris I, Pantheon-Sorbonne (January - March 2000) attended masters taught courses on Mathematics in Economics

Volunteer, Community Action, UMIST (1995 and 2000) 1995 and 2001, carer represented UMIST to celebrate Year of Volunteering at the House of Parliament, London (19 February 2001) 2001-2, committee

Ph.D. candidate, University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (2000 and 2001-2, Kittisak Nui Tiyapan)

researched on transliteration in translation researched in Chemical Engineering 2001-2, post-graduate representative in the university committee
2001-2, student representative in the library committee

Lecturer at Asian University, Thailand (17 January – 24 May 2005, Kittisakdxi Tyabandha) taught Communication Engineering taught and wrote lecture notes for Foundation Physics and Electromagnetics

Lecturer at Mahidol University, Thailand (1 September 2005 – 2007, Kit Tyabandha) taught Mathematics taught and wrote lecture notes for Coding Theory and Business Mathematics

Writer, composer and artist, United Kingdom (2004-2011, Kit Tyabond Johnstone ) researched on isometric language and worked on digital libraries and galleries three certificates: 2004, 2005 and 2008, United Kingdom

Education

Montfort College, Thailand (1973-1983 and 1984- 25 March 1985, Kittisak Tiyapun) primary and secondary education; Prathom 5, 16 March 1977; Prathom 6, 26 March 1978; Madhyom 6, 25 March 1985

Ashburton College, New Zealand (January 1983 – 18 November 1983, Kittisak Tiyapun, or Nui Johnstone)
Sixth Form: mathematics, music, art history, geology and English.

Ramkamhaeng University, Thailand (24 June 1985 – 15 May 1992, Kittisak Tiyapan)
B.Sc. in Computer Science.

Chulalongkorn University, Thailand (1986-1991 and 1991-1993)
B.Eng. in Mineral Engineering, Mining Engineering (5 June 1986 – 5 June 1991)
B.Eng. in Control Systems, Electrical Engineering (17 October 1991 – 25 May 1993)

University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology, England (October 1994 – October 1995)
M.Sc. in Control and Information Technology, 12 December 1995
Dissertation titled Computation of Fluid Flow

University of Manchester, England (2001-2002, Kittisak Nui Tiyapan)
Ph.D. in Chemical Engineering, 1 January 2001 – March 2003, 30 September 2004
Thesis titled Division of Space by Voronoi Graphs, Percolation within Percolation
